JUDGMENT

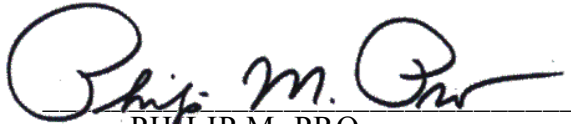

On May 27, 2011, this Court entered an Order (Doc. #261) approving the parties' stipulation (Doc. #259) concerning the non-economic components of the parties' stipulated agreement. The parties stipulated, prior to the jury's verdict, that Plaintiff Charles Williams, M.D. would recover a minimum of $1.5 million and a maximum of $6.5 million, or the amount of the jury verdict if it fell between $1.5 and $6.5 million. Additionally, the parties stipulated that Plaintiff would waive any right to recover punitive damages, that both sides would waive all rights to appeal, and that Defendants would pay the judgment within fourteen (14) days of entry by the Court.

Judgment is hereby entered in favor of Plaintiff Charles Williams, M.D. and against Defendants in the amount of $6.5 million dollars pursuant to the parties'

1 stipulation which was memorialized on the record before the jury returned its
2 verdict. The Judgment includes taxable costs, attorney's fees, and prejudgment
3 interest. The Judgment also includes post judgment interest, provided the Judgment
4 is paid within fourteen (14) days of entry of the Judgment by the Court.
